

WELLNESS POLICY

Midwest Bible Camp

The board of directors of Midwest Bible Camp in order to promote healthy students by supporting wellness, good nutrition and regular physical activity as a part of the total learning environment have developed the following wellness policy. The board supports a healthy environment where campers learn and participate in positive dietary and lifestyle practices. By facilitating learning through the support and promotion of good nutrition and physical activity, the board hopes to contribute to the basic health status of students. Improved health optimizes student performance potential. The camp setting provides a comprehensive learning environment for developing and practicing lifelong wellness behaviors. Because of the camp setting, we feel that we can become a positive influence on the campers' understanding, beliefs and habits as they relate to good nutrition and regular physical activity.

The board supports and promotes proper dietary habits contributing to campers' health status and academic performance. All foods available at the camp and other activities during the day should meet or exceed the school district nutrition standards. Foods should be served with consideration toward nutritional integrity, variety, appeal, taste, safety and packaging to ensure high-quality meals.

The camp provides free meals during the day plus a snack time in the afternoon and in the evening. All of these are provided at no cost to the campers and meet with standard nutritional practices.

The board will develop a local wellness policy committee comprised of representatives of the board, parents, leaders in food/exercise authority and workers. These policies will also be available for review by all parties as well as health professionals. The local wellness policy committee will develop a plan to implement and measure the local wellness policy and monitor the effectiveness of the policy. The committee will designate an individual to monitor implementation and evaluate the implementation of the policy. The committee will report annually to the board regarding the effectiveness of this policy.

OTHER CAMP ACTIVITIES THAT PROMOTE STUDENT WELLNESS

Integrating Physical Activity into everyday life

It is the board policy to encourage all campers to participate in some form of physical activities during the day. Campers are discouraged from bringing computer games, radios, mp3 players, etc. to camp and encouraged to participate in some form of physical activity during their free time.

Communication with Parents

It is the board's policy that campers are not to bring snack or candy from home. This practice is discouraged to keep food out of the cabins that can draw insects or rodents and also discourage campers from eating health food at meal times or snack times. This policy is listed on the camp applications.

Food Marketing at Camp

It is the board policy to discourage and limit the intake of unhealthy snacks. We do offer a canteen time that offers candy and soda, but we also provide bottled water and healthier choices. The camper is limited to two items per day. We also offer a health snack during the evening.

Staff Wellness

The board values the health and well-being of every staff member and will plan and implement activities and policies that support personal efforts by staff to maintain a healthy lifestyle. We will provide ways to encourage healthy eating, physical activity and other elements of a healthy lifestyle among staff.

The recipes and menus used at camp will be reviewed to provide the most nutritionally and appealing meals. The staff is also instructed to provide special meals for campers and staff that have allergies or other restrictions.

Sharing of Foods

The board discourages campers from sharing their foods or beverages with one another during meal or snack times, given concerns about allergies and other restrictions on some children's diets.

Foods Sold Outside the Meal (canteen time or special snacks or treats)

We encourage campers to choose health snacks at canteen time. We do offer soft drinks as well as candy, but will also offer water and other snacks that are healthier. We do limit the camper to two items per day. We also encourage staff to choose health treats when offering rewards or other treats during the day. We discourage offering candy and other non-nutritional snacks at camp.

NUTRITION GUIDELINES FOR ALL FOODS AVAILABLE AT CAMP

We encourage the Kitchen staff to provide meals that conform to standard nutritional guidelines including reasonable portion controls and fat content.
